

Boardmaker® Instructional Solutions

✔ Boardmaker Current Events

We Have Some Great News!

What Makes Boardmaker Current Events Different?

Zero Prep Time

A predictable instructional routine means no prep time for teachers and deeper engagement for students.

Equal Access to the Curriculum

Every student has access to the same rigorous content and will be successful using the differentiated supports provided!

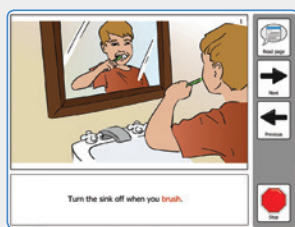

Rigorous Approach that Promotes Critical Thinking

Students engage with each topic from multiple angles —as readers, writers, mathematicians, and geographers.

Boardmaker Current Events is a weekly, news-based curriculum that provides real world news and rigorous academic instruction in ELA and Math, making it fully accessible to all students with special educational needs, in grades K-12.

Vocabulary strategies provide opportunities for students to engage with words in multiple ways.

Beginning books employ high frequency words and reinforce the weekly topic.

Rich Interactivity

Students will be engaged with powerful writing activities, rich illustrations, recordable responses and more!

News Topics Connected to Academics

Each week students read, write, calculate, and think about science, culture, geography, and even politics!

Researched-Based Vocabulary Strategy

A multi-step, multi-sensory vocabulary strategy targets high frequency words!

Convenient

Teachers and students access activities from any computer or iPad and student results are automatically sent to the teacher!

Accessible

Every activity is accessible using scanning, eyegaze or touch and the student's access method follows them wherever they go!

One-Stop Alignment Solution!

An easy-to-follow implementation guide provides a systematic approach to specific alignment of Common Core and State Standards and easily aligns to IEP goals.

Here's What You Get Each Week!

Topic Content

- The Observer, your weekly electronic newspaper, with 1 topic article and 1 location article
- 2 topic-related, beginning books

ELA Components

- ELA Lesson Plans and Quick Lesson Guide
- Daily ELA lessons that include multiple on-screen activities differentiated to 3 levels of support
- Printable activities
- ELA Skills Inventories

Math Components

- Math Lesson Plans and Quick Lesson Guide
- Daily Math lessons that include multiple on-screen activities differentiated to 3 levels of support

Additional Fun

- Printable activities
- Math Skills Inventory
- Game bundle for additional practice
- Recipe that corresponds to each topic
- Slide Show

Extra! Extra!

Breaking news happens! You will receive occasional Breaking News Articles throughout the year that include a lesson plan with multiple differentiated onscreen activities across three levels of support.

Research-based, Teacher Approved!

Current Events instructional design reflects the growing body of research in disability studies as well as the latest research in instructional approaches in general education.

"Boardmaker Current Events saves me at least an hour a week. The prep time on the teacher's part is very minimal and that's really nice. The fact that everything is laid out for you is awesome."

- Nicole S., Special Education Teacher

"It has reminded me that we shouldn't put limits on students. With proper supports, students can accomplish great things!" - Christine S., Special Ed Teacher

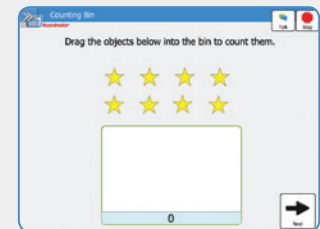

Discover weekly news articles.

Assign differentiated writing activities.

Explore various math topics.

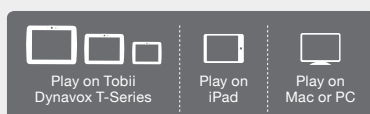

Practice and play with numerous math activities.

New to Boardmaker Online?

Visit boardmakeronline.com to learn more.

District volume and package discounts apply.

Email info@boardmakeronline.com for a quote.

$79 / instructor/year

Boardmaker Current Events requires a Boardmaker Online Personal, Professional, or District subscription.